Stephanie – I just wanted to follow-up on our meeting yesterday. I hope we were able to answer your questions regarding the scope and direction of the project. We discussed getting together next week sometime to review the revised list of action items from our technical meetings. As of now, Wednesday is fairly open with the exception of 1-2:30. Let me know if there's a time that works for you guys. Unfortunately, the rest of the week is pretty busy. However, if Wednesday doesn't work, I could do Monday at 11 or 3.

Thx, Cassandra
